LABOR TROUBLES.

Great Dissatisfaction Among Railroad Men.

A BIG STRIKE IMMINENT.

Locomotive Engineers on the Erie Road Growing Impatient at the Delayed Answer to Their Recent Demands—Other Labor Troubles.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The Herald says it was learned from a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers on the Erie road, late last night, that the men had become impatient at the company's delay in their demands, and that if these demands were not granted by Wednesday a general strike would be ordered. The men believe that the company is asking for more time in order to get men who will fill the strikers' places.

The committee representing the Federation of the Erie Railroad Employes will to-day call upon General Manager E. B. Thomas, when they expect he will give an answer in regard to their demands and sign an agreement for one year. The committee presented the agreement some days ago and is anxiously awaiting a reply.

The agreement contains a number of clauses, the principal one being that ten hours shall be considered a regular day's work. A small advance in wages is asked for.

The Knights Will Fight.

ALBANY, Oct. 7.—The Knights of Labor in this city who were instrumental in causing the strike on the Central, are going to make a fight in court against the fiat of the Central road against the knights. They are to be supported in the fight by the general council. They hold that the action is in direct violation of a law passed through the efforts of the knights in 1887, and which makes it a disdemeanor for any corporation to coerce or compel any employer to enter into either verbal or written agreement not to become a member or remain one of any labor organization as a condition of obtaining or remaining in the employment of such corporation. The penalty for violation is six months' imprisonment and a fine of $200, and the Knights propose to test the law.

Railway Section Foremen.

TOLEDO, O., Oct. 7.—Delegates to the fifth international convention of the Brotherhood of Railway Section Foremen, which opens here to-day, are arriving. James Sweeney, of Illinois, is grand chief foreman, and the board of officers represent Tennessee, Missouri, Iowa, Kansas and Canada. Very favorable reports of the progress of the brotherhood in all sections will be presented, showing that a large proportion of the 40,000 foremen in the United States and Canada are on the rolls of the organization.

Car Employes Demand Higher Wages.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—A committee of five from the West Side Street Car Conductors' and Drivers' association called on General Manager Parsons yesterday and presented their request for higher wages and a demand that an order be issued addressed to the officers of the company not to discriminate against any organization among the employes of the road. Mr. Parsons replied that he would give the request of the men a careful consideration, and would reply as soon as practicable.

AFTER SIX YEARS.

A Kentucky Murderer Captured in the Missouri Bottoms.

OMAHA, Oct. 7.—A World-Herald Glenwood special says: B. Jeffers, chief of police of Franklin, Ky., assisted by Sheriff Delasmutt, have just arrived from off the Missouri bottom, having in charge George Keller, wanted in Barden county, Ky., for killing a man there in 1884, during the presidential campaign of that year. The killing grew out of a political difficulty and was entirely unprovoked.

Keller, who is a Republican, had been in attendance at a rally, and, returning under the influence of liquor, his political zeal got the better of him, and he resorted to the killing method of diminishing Democratic majorities. Chief Jeffers was accompanied by Samuel Turman, a former neighbor of Keller's who fully identified the prisoner. Keller has been living on the bottoms south of here for four or five years, and has but recently been implicated in a stabbing affair. The officers express the opinion that Keller will go to the penitentiary.

A Stranger Taken In.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 7.—William J. Elliott, of Evansville, Ind., while en route to Maysville Saturday night from this city on the Louis A. Sherley, fell in with a stranger named Walker, who pretended to be sick and shared Elliott's stateroom with him. When Elliott awoke Sunday morning his companion was gone, together with $4,500 of Elliott's money. Walker left the boat at Augusta, and has not been heard from since.

Theatrical Troupe Wrecked.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 7.—There was a collision here yesterday between a freight and a passenger train, containing members of the "Siberia" and "Kajanka" company. Miss Carrie Radcliffe was bruised and her back hurt and Master Jack Ferris had his cheek cut. The cars containing the scenery of the two companies were broken up and the scenery scattered around.

Gin House Blown to Pieces.

GRIFFIN, Ga., Oct. 7.—A boiler in the gin house at Luella, eight miles from here, exploded yesterday, killing Isaac Breed and Jack Reid, colored, and fatally wounding J. H. Stillwell and another man.

SHE SAW NAPOLEON.

The Mother of Five Generations Living in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Five generations under one roof constitute a very singular combination, and yet such is the condition of affairs at 509 Eighth street, southeast, in this city, near the marine barracks. Mrs. Agnes Rebosso, 104 years of age, is the eldest of the group, and during all these years she has been active and spry and able to do without spectacles or glasses.

About five years ago she was pleased by an increased power of vision, which enabled her to pursue uninterruptedly her favorite pastime of darning stockings for her grandchildren. Port Mallon, on the isle of Monaco, was the birthplace of Mrs. Rebosso, and she remained in Spain until about thirty-eight years ago, when she came to this country to join her daughter, who has been widowed by the explosion of a gun aboard the United States ship Princeton in the administration of President Tyler.

While in Spain it was Mrs. Rebosso's good fortune to attend several receptions given in honor of the great Napoleon, and she frequently held conversations with the Empress Josephine, both in her apartments and in the gardens of the Alhambra palace. Reminiscences of these and great people were a prevalent topic of conversation with her descendants every Sunday afternoon until recently, she being now prostrated by senile debility, although her mental faculties remain unimpaired.

A grandson of Mrs. Rebosso was one of the jurors in the Guiteau case, his name being Thomas W. Fernline, who died about eight years ago. One of the stories that Mrs. Rebosso never seems to tire of telling relates to a period in Spanish history when troops were ordered to be quartered upon all families, and the burden was borne passively by all save her people. They volunteered to pay to the military hospital authorities a sum of money equivalent to what it would cost to furnish the troops with supplies, and this proposition was promptly accepted.

Although of a decided Spanish type, Mrs. Rebosso speaks French almost as well as she does her mother tongue, and her piercing black eyes and rather short stature made her a noteworthy personage wherever she had been in the habit of visiting. Not long ago Mrs. Rebosso attended what has proved to be her last communion at St. Peter's church in this city. A few Sundays ago the invalid persisted in coming downstairs to be present at the baptism of the youngest member of the family, and who is now 13 months old.

All these years Mrs. Rebosso has moved about the world unaided by any one, or a crutch or a stick, and many people are inclined to discredit the story that she was born nearly thirty years before the battle of Waterloo, and all because of her remarkable activity and agility. She was very much prostrated, however, by the death of her favorite granddaughter several months ago and her own death is said to be only a question of a short time.

Mysterious and Sudden Death.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 7.—A special from Omaha, Neb., to The Tribune says: There is intense excitement at the village of Palmyra, in Ottoe county, over the mysterious death of Dolly Leserve, on her father's farm, near there last night. The girl came to town yesterday and during the afternoon entered the store of a man named Rottman. A brother-in-law who saw her, demanded an explanation of Rottman and was told that she had asked permission to pass through the store in order to avoid some young man on the street. Last night about 11 o'clock Dolly, who sleeps with her two sisters, was taken with convulsions and died in a short time. She told her sister she had taken poison.

Suicided in a Cistern.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 7.—Mrs. Joseph Miller, a highly esteemed and respectably connected old lady, arose from her bed at an early hour this morning and threw herself in a cistern, where she was found drowned by her husband at daybreak. Acute suffering from dyspepsia is assigned as the cause of the suicide.

Accident to Two Emperors.

VIENNA, Oct. 7.—When the Austrian and German emperors were leaving Muerzesteg for Neuberg yesterday the horses of their carriage shied, and dashed the vehicle against a fence, breaking the pole. The emperors alighted unhurt, and walked until they were overtaken by the King of Saxony's carriage.

Bookmakers "Broke."

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 7.—The St. Louis pool rooms have suffered tremendous losses during the past month and seven bookmakers are "broke." It is estimated that $100,000 has been taken from them Roche and Wider have quit, and W. B. Eaton, a representative of Lovell, of New York, lost $40,000 in six months

Fears of a Fight.

German Day in Minneapolis.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 7.—A special from Burlington, Iowa, to The Tribune says: Ten thousand people came here yesterday to participate in the exercises conducted by the local Germans. The grand parade was the feature.

REPORT ON PENSIONS

Annual Statement Issued by Commissioner Raum.

PENSIONERS ON THE ROLLS.

At the End of the Last Fiscal Year There Were Considerable Over a Half Million People Receiving Aid From the Government—Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—The annual report of Green B. Raum, commissioner of pensions, for the fiscal year ended June 30 past, and including the first quarter of the current fiscal year of the operations of his bureau, was submitted to the secretary of the interior yesterday. It shows that at the end of the fiscal year there were 537,944 pensioners borne upon the rolls.

There were 66,337 original claims allowed during the year, being 14,716 more than were allowed in 1889. The amount of the first payment of these claims aggregated $32,478,841, being $11,036,192 more than in the previous fiscal year, and $10,179,225 more than the first payments of the fiscal year 1888. The average annual value of each pension at the close of the year was $133.94.

Commissioner Raum says that upon assuming charge of the pension office last October he discovered that a number of important changes were necessary to secure satisfactory results; which were brought to the attention of the secretary of the interior. There were no satisfactory specified duties provided for the deputy commissioners or the chief clerk of the bureau. Several thousand letters were daily received from claimants and attorneys making complaints, to which no reply was made; the medical division was divided into sections for consideration of classified diseases; the power of reopening claims was exercised by heads of divisions and examiners without submitting them to the commissioner; claims were drawn from the files from day to day, for adjudication at the discretion of the file clerks, claimants having no power to make the settlement of their claims when complete; 18 per cent. of the official force was assigned to duty in the field for the special examination of cases, when there were 14,335 cases in the special examination division; a division had been created, called the board of re-review, composed of about forty persons, for the re-examination of cases passed upon by the board of review; and matters relating to the appointment and promotion of the official force of the pension office and of boards of medical examiners were under the direction of two divisions.

The report contains all the orders in regard to these defects in administration and the manner in which they were remedied.

The commissioner devotes considerable space to discussing and explaining the present system of drawing cases from the files for adjudication, and says that under the system of the completed files, the claimant has a right, upon a proper certification that his claim is complete, to have it immediately placed upon the "completed files" and taken up in its order for adjudication. Claims placed upon the "completed files" are taken up within a week for action, and if found complete are immediately allowed. If proofs are lacking, a call is immediately made upon the claimant to supply the deficiency, and upon the receipt of the required evidence the claim is again taken up for consideration.

The soldier who is entitled to a pension and promptly furnishes the required evidence to establish his claim should have his case disposed of without delay. He should have the right to notify the office that he is ready for trial and not be compelled to await the action of a file clerk in drawing his claim; for, however diligent the file clerks may be, it is impossible for them, when there are 1,000,000 claims pending as is now the case, to have such knowledge of their condition as to enable them daily to select the cases which should have precedence in adjudication because of their priority of completion.

When Commissioner Raum took charge of the bureau last October, he says, the work of adjudicating claims and issuing certificates had during the period from July 1, 1889, fallen far behind the same period for the previous fiscal year; while from Oct. 20, 1889, to June 30, 1890, there was an increase in the adjudication of claims and the issuing of certificates, greatly in excess of the same period of the preceding fiscal year.

To illustrate the great amount of business transacted, compared with previous work of the bureau, the report furnishes a statement showing that since the disability act was passed the bureau received in July, August and September past, 1,276,729 letters relating to disability claims, and sent out during the same period 485,462 replies. The commissioner thinks that probably 100,000 of these claims can be allowed.

He speaks of the disability act as the first in the history of the world which grants pensions for disabilities not proven in the line of duty, and as a law which recognizes a higher obligation on the part of the people to disabled veterans than was ever before formulated. Nothing, he says, shall be left undone by the bureau to give effect to this latest expression of the gratitude of the people to the soldiers who saved the republic."

Captured Chinamen.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—The collector of customs at Port Townsend, Wash., reports to the treasury department under the date of Sept. 29, that Inspector Jackling on Sept. 23 captured a sloop with twenty Chinamen aboard, bound from British Columbia to a landing in that state. The two men in charge of the vessel ran her ashore at Port Haddock and escaped. The Chinamen were captured and imprisoned at McNeil's Island, awaiting extradition.

A Meeting of Veterans.

ONE OF THEM IS DEAD,

While Lynchers Are on the Other's Trail, Such is Life in Idaho.

DENVER, Col., Oct. 7.—Information received from Mulien, Idaho, announces the killing of Ed. Stacey by E. A. Davidson. Stacey and his partner, Bassett, figured in nearly all the trouble that occurred at that noted place, Pottsville. Stacey and Bassett, who have been a terror in Idaho, concluded that they would create a little excitement by robbing every saloon from Pottsville to Sturgis, in Montana.

Disguising themselves with masks and putting on old clothes, they started on their expedition. The first place they came to they only found ninety cents. They then killed the proprietor because he did not have more money. The next saloon they found nine men sitting at a poker game, and stepping into the room with a revolver in each hand they commanded all to throw up their hands, which was instantly done. Stacey held his revolver on the men while his partner, Bassett, searched them, getting about $200.

Crossing the road to another saloon they broke the door down, and were going to do up the saloon-keeper, who was sleeping there. Young Davidson was sleeping in the saloon. As soon as the desperadoes stepped inside of the door they began shooting at Davidson, who was sitting on the bed. Davidson returned the fire, and brought down Stacey. A posse started in search of Bassett. If captured, he will be lynched.

OHIO STATE NEWS.

GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION.

He Calls the Legislature to Assemble in Special Session at the State House in Columbus on Tuesday, October 14. Other Ohio Happenings.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 7.—Governor Campbell gave out his ultimatum Saturday night that unless he received the resignations of the alleged guilty members of the Cincinnati board of public improvements by noon Monday he would call for a special session of the legislature. The call fixed such a date to enable the legislature to give the people of Cincinnati an opportunity to vote for a new board at the November election. An effort was made to force Reemelin, Denham and Montgomery to to resign, to save the patronage of the board, but they refused to do so, and challenged the governor to file the charges.

The governor's office was thronged all morning by politicians, reporters and other interested parties awaiting the issue of the call for the special session. Governor Campbell, Secretary Meeker, Candidates Cromley and Okey, with John L. Geyer, secretary of the Democratic state executive committee, were closeted together for an hour, but the result of their deliberations could not be ascertained.

Telegrams in great numbers were received and dispatched. All the callers were given to understand that the extraordinary session was almost a certainty. But still there were many who expressed their doubts. It was evident that the governor hoped that information would be received from Cincinnati which would make the convening of the assembly unnecessary even from his point of view.

Shortly after noon the governor issued the following proclamation, a copy of which was at once sent to every member of the legislature:

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the constitution of the state of Ohio, I, James E. Campbell, governor of said state, do hereby require the Sixty-ninth general assembly of Ohio to convene at the state house in Columbus, at 10 o'clock, a. m., Tuesday Oct. 14, A. D., 1890; then and there to receive such communication as may be laid before it; and to take such action thereon as to it may seem proper.

In testimony thereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused to be affixed the great seal of the state, at Columbus, this sixth day of October, A. D., 1890. JAMES E. CAMPBELL.

By the Governor.

DANIEL J. RYAN, Secretary of State.

Why it is Popular.

Because it has proven its absolute merit over and over again, because it has an unequaled record of cures, because its business is conducted in a thoroughly honest manner, and because it combines economy and strength, being the only medicine of which "100 Doses One Dollar" is true—these strong points have made Hood's Sarsaparilla the most successful medicine of the day.

CITIZENS BOARD OF TRADE

Meeting of the Incorporators Monday Evening—The Incorporators and Object of the Organization.

The incorporators of the Citizens Board of Trade of Marion met at the probate court room Monday evening, and appointed the following committee to draft a constitution, rules and regulations: J. J. Hane, C. W. Leffler, Henry True, Harvey Wilson and Julius Strelitz. The committee will meet Friday evening and after transacting its business will appoint a meeting of the members of the Board, at which its work will be submitted and an organization effected.

The incorporation of the Board was effected September the 25th, with the following list of twenty-five gentlemen, well-known business men and citizens of Marion: E. Huber, T. H. B. Beale, J. F. McNeal, M. B. Chase, C. W. Leffler, J. J. Hane, H. B. Hane, A. H. Kling, T. P. Wallace, H. N. Love, A. C. Edmondson, Henry Strelitz, Julius Strelitz, D. Yake, S. G. Kleinmaier, Wm. H. Eckhart, Ben. F. Kleinmaier, B. Tristram, Geo. Crawford, C. B. Kling, Harvey Wilson, Henry True, Geo. D. Copeland, Sam Oppenheimer and Solomon Oppenheimer.

The purposes of the Board, as related in the articles of incorporation, are "To promote integrity and good faith, just and equitable principles of business; to discover and correct abuses; to establish and maintain uniformity in commercial uses; to acquire, preserve and disseminate valuable business statistics and information; to prevent or adjust controversies and misunderstandings which may arise between persons engaged in trade; and generally to foster, protect and advance the commercial, mercantile and manufacturing interests of the city."

Suicide of Portuguese Authors.

A German contemporary, The Vossische Zeitung, draws attention to the number of suicides which have lately taken place among Portuguese authors. Last June the aged poet Castello Branco, the best liked novel writer of the country, shot himself. He was well off and had a numerous family, but had lately suffered from a malady of the eyes. Shortly before his death he had written a novel in which voluntary death was praised as the most beautiful close to an active life. His funeral was celebrated like that of Victor Hugo in France.

A few weeks later the author Silva de Braga took his own life after writing many realistic novels in which the hero always committed suicide. On the 23d of July a school director and secretary of the municipality of Almada, Professor Arthur Mattos e Lemos, took his life in a hotel in Lisbon with a revolver. In a letter to his wife he declared that the earthly life offered him no more room for the development of his mind. On the 25th of the same month Professor Frederick Augustus Oom, director of the Royal observatory at Ajada, also shot himself. He was only 45.

The Girls Stood by Him.

Robert Smythe, the waiter who was placed in the St. Andrew's jail for an assault on Manager Carter, of the Algonquin hotel, had his trial last week, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $1 with costs, $4.75—in all $8.75—or to be imprisoned forty days. The female waiters in the hotel on hearing the result raised the amount, and in a body went to the jail and paid it over to the jailer, thus securing Smythe's release. They took Smythe up in their arms and carried him from the jail to the street, and gave him three hearty cheers. They then escorted him to the railway station, and before he stepped on board the car was embraced and kissed by some of his female admirers, and as the train moved off they saluted their protege with cheers, just the same as men would do.—Bangor Commercial.

War Against Doctors in Spain.

The Spaniards have a strange method of showing their gratitude to the medical men who are risking their lives in the present cholera crisis. In Valencia a physician has been killed by a stiletto stab in the back. At Mogente another doctor had his head split in two by a hatchet wielded by a woman, while in another district near Lerida a third was set upon and killed by an infuriated mob. No doctor can move about without a military escort, and even then cases of assault are of daily occurrence. The reason assigned is that the peasants are opposed to precautionary regulations. Strange people, the Spaniards!—Table.

Crabs Foretell a Hard Winter.

Ice men and others will be glad to learn that the coming winter will be an old fashioned one, with plenty of snow and ice. Capt. Isaac Hendricking, of Poughkeepsie, is authority for this statement. He says that the lower Hudson is full of crabs, and he never yet in all his boating experience knew it to fail that when crabs were abundant in the river an old fashioned winter did not follow.—Albany Journal.

A Georgia editor who is building a railroad says he will soon be able to furnish his brethren with free passes. But as the road will only cover a distance of ten miles, and it is far removed from many of them, it will take them six months' steady walking to get to it.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Dr. John Mackintosh, the Scotch historian, is a seller of second hand books at Aberdeen, Scotland.

Archbishop Kenrick is the oldest Catholic prelate in the United States. He is 84 and was consecrated in 1841.

Archbishop Corrigan was born in Newark, N. J., where his father was proprietor of a popular hotel on Market street.

Edwin Booth's manner toward those who treat him with undue familiarity is said to be chilling, if not petrifying.

Ben Butler once supported himself by making chairs for thirty cents a day. His annual income now is said to be $250,000.

William Lowery, who died at Williamsburg recently, was the engineer of Commodore Vanderbilt's first steam ferryboat. He was 81.

President Herrera y Obes, of Uruguay, has no palace, and lives modestly in rooms over a milliner's shop on one of the principal streets of Montevideo.

Simeon E. Baldwin, who has just been elected president of the American Bar association, has been professor of constitutional law in Yale since 1872.

Senator Hearst and W. L. Scott are said to have won enough money with their respective stables to pay their campaign expenses for the next five years.

Hannibal Hamlin is an inveterate club man and card player, and enters into a game of whist or auction pitch with as much grit as though he was a sophomore in college.

Congressman Kennedy, of Ohio, entered the war as a private and rose by successive steps to brigadier general. At the close of the war he studied law and has since practiced at the bar.

At one time Gen. Custer tamed a tiny field mouse, and kept it in a large empty inkstand on his desk. It grew very fond of him, and ran over his head and shoulders and even through his hair.

Actor Crane is said to have made $70,000 in 1889 out of "The Senator." His entire fortune is reckoned at $250,000. A dozen years ago he was playing leading comedy parts on a salary of $150 a week.

The president of the Kentucky constitutional convention, Mr. Cassius Marcellus Clay, Jr., is a grandson of Henry Clay, a well to do farmer of Bourbon county, and a graduate of Yale in the class of 1866.

Lieut. Brownell, who avenged the death of his commander, Col. E. E. Ellsworth, of the New York fire zouaves, at Alexandria, Va., near the opening of the war, is now in the pension department at Washington.

James Redpath, who began life in the United States by engaging with the free state men who went out to redeem Kansas from border ruffianism, is employed in his old age in helping to prepare the memoirs of Jefferson Davis.

Gen. W. H. Enochs, of Ohio, was one of the youngest enlisted soldiers in the Army of the Potomac, and one of the youngest generals, too. He is said to have commanded in battle more than 4,000 men when he was but 22 years old.

President McLeod, of the Reading railroad, will now receive $40,000 a year as salary. This is the largest compensation given any railway official in the United States, it is asserted, except that paid to Mr. Depew by the New York Central, who gets $50,000.

USEFUL FUR NOTES

Be careful not to wet sealskin, but if it should become so accidentally, rub it softly down with a silk handkerchief, and dry at a distance from the fire.

Grease spots can be removed from sealskin with the old fashioned blotting paper and warm iron; and stains of sugar often disappear on the application of a weak solution of spirits of wine.

With seals, as with every other fur, it is best to select garments made from solid skins, as these always have a value, while articles made from pieces, however skillfully joined, are generally worthless after a short time.

Although moths keep away from sealskins, it is nevertheless advisable to keep them in a warm [illegible] A [illegible] softness [illegible] room.

Prince Mohamed Burhaneddin, the 5 year old son of the sultan, has recently been enrolled as a seaman on board of the Turkish frigate Orkhanie.

Queen Victoria is said to be partial to men. She gives eight "levees" for them during a season, and only two "drawing rooms" are held for women.

A National Event.

The holding of the World's Fair in a city scarcely fifty years old will be a remarkable event, but whether it will really benefit this nation as much as the discovery of the Restorative Nervine by Dr. Franklin Miles is doubtful. This is just what the American people need to cure their excessive nervousness, dyspepsia, headache, dizziness, sleeplessness, neuralgia, nervous debility, dullness, confusion of mind, etc. It acts like a charm. Trial bottles and fine book on "Nervous and Heart Disease," with unequaled testimonials, free at Denison & Co's., and Hoberman & Co's. It is warranted to contain no opium, morphine or dangerous drugs.

The importance of purifying the blood cannot be overestimated, for without pure blood you cannot enjoy good health.

At this season nearly every one needs a good medicine to purify, vitalize, and enrich the blood, and we ask you to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. It strengthens and builds up the system, creates an appetite, and tones the digestion, while it eradicates disease. The peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation of the vegetable remedies used give to Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiar curative powers. No other medicine has such a record of wonderful cures. If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other instead. It is a Peculiar Medicine, and is worthy your confidence.

Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills

Act on a new principle—regulating the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves. A new discovery. Dr. Miles' Pills speedily cure biliousness, bad taste, torpid liver, piles, constipation. Unequaled for men, women, children. Smallest, mildest, surest! Fifty doses, 25 cents. Sample free, at Denison & Co., and Hoberman & Co.

[illegible] the German Millers' Mutual [illegible] is Knapps [illegible]

A fragment of a statue has been found [illegible] at Verona bearing the tantalizing inscription, "Praxiteles made me."

A column of army worms invaded Woodbridge, Cal., recently. It was half a mile long, and was followed by immense swarms of blackbirds, which preyed upon it.

There is an inmate of the Georgia state lunatic asylum who imagines, in his insanity, that he is a grain of corn. He will not go into the yard, fearing the chickens will eat him.

When you need a good safe laxative ask your druggist for a box of Ayer's Pills and you will find that they give perfect satisfaction. For indigestion, torpid liver, and sick headache there is nothing superior. Leading physicians recommend them.

Fred Bahner, of Reading, Pa., suddenly experienced a loss of weight from 150 to 80 pounds recently, and found the cause of it to be five lizards that had been living in his stomach.

A curious bird flew into Charleston, S. C., from the swamps recently. It is about the size of a hen, with white plumage and a face that looks like a human being's. Its eyes are almond shaped like a Chinaman's, and its bill has the shape of a human nose.

Professor Gauthier of Paris states that certain vital processes of the body develope putrefying substances in the tissues which if not speedily eliminated produce disease. Ayer's sarsaparilla effects the removal of these substances and thereby preserves health.

Krause's Headache Capsules, unlike many remedies, are perfectly harmless; they contain no injurious substance, and will stop any kind of a headache, will prevent headaches caused by over-indulgence of food or drink late at night. Price 25 cents. For sale by all leading druggists.

The season is at hand when the unwary merchants will be beguiled into advertising through tramps who propose getting up programs and other "snide" schemes to transfer their cash into the pocket of some fellow who is anxious to make a raise. Advertise in your home paper and get your money's worth.

Remarkable Facts.

Heart disease is usually supposed to be incurable, but when properly treated a large proportion of cases can be cured. Thus Mrs. Elmira Hatch, of Elkhart, Ind., and Mrs. Mary L. Baker, of Ovid, Mich., were cured after suffering 20 years. S. C. Linburger, druggist at San Jose, Ill., says that Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, which cured the former, "worked wonders for his wife." Levi Logan, of Buchanan, Mich., who had heart disease for 30 years, says two bottles made him "feel like a new man." Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold and guaranteed by Denison & Co., and Hoberman & Co. Book of wonderful testimonials free.

BROKEN OUT!

How often do we see this on the faces of children and, alas, of people who otherwise are healthy? What causes it? Bad Blood. The thought is terrible; the trouble is worse. No ordinary help can remove it. It requires something unusual. Do not take cheap sarsaparillas or blood purifiers. You must have something that has proven its power in both Europe and America. General Wheatcroft Nelson, of London, says: "My experience in the English army, as well as in America, convinces me that nothing so thoroughly purifies the blood, or adds to the health, vigor and life, as Dr. Acker's English Blood Elixir."

This grand Elixir is sold by druggists in all parts of America. It is a good, pure, honest medicine. Try it to-day.

Constipation,

IF not remedied in season, is liable to become habitual and chronic. Drastic purgatives, by weakening the bowels, confirm, rather than cure, the evil. Ayer's Pills, being mild, effective, and strengthening in their action, are generally recommended by the faculty as the best of aperients.

"Having been subject, for years, to constipation, without being able to find much relief, I at last tried Ayer's Pills. I deem it both a duty and a pleasure to testify that I have derived great benefit from their use. For over two years past I have taken one of these pills every night before retiring. I would not willingly be without them."—G. W. Bowman, 26 East Main st., Carlisle, Pa.

"I have been taking Ayer's Pills and using them in my family since 1857, and cheerfully recommend them to all in need of a safe but effectual cathartic." —John M. Boggs, Louisville, Ky.

"For eight years I was afflicted with constipation, which at last became so bad that the doctors could do no more for me. Then I began to take Ayer's Pills, and soon the bowels recovered their natural and regular action, so that now I am in excellent health."—S. L. Loughbridge, Bryan, Texas.

"Having used Ayer's Pills, with good results, I fully indorse them for the purposes for which they are recommended." —T. Conners, M. D., Centre Bridge, Pa.

—The county commissioners were out in Richland township to-day, where they joined the Morrow county board in viewing the joint county ditch known as Otter Creek.

—Marion Lodge of Elks have a Stag Social Session on the programme for next Thursday evening, Oct. 9. George M. Beicher will preside, and much enjoyment is anticipated.

—The state meeting of the Farmers' Alliance, which was fixed for January 2d, at Galion, has been changed to January 20th, on account of numerous agricultural society meetings on that date.

—Mrs. J. Fribley is attending the session of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, Cincinnati branch, to be held in Broad Street Church, Columbus, the 8th and 9th. She will be absent a week or more.

—The Marion Steam Shovel Company has increased its capital stock from $100,000 to $300,000, $100,000 of which will be paid in during the coming year. The increase is made in contemplation of improvements.

—News reaches here from Pueblo, Colorado, of the marriage of Wm. Hogan, of that city, to Miss Hannah Dwyer, the ceremony having been performed by Rev. Father McLevitt of the Denver cathedral. Both of the contracting parties were formerly of this city and have many friends here to wish them much joy.

—The news of the death of Mrs. Oden last week was so sudden that, to the press, there came no particulars. From last Thursday's Delaware Press we learn that her sudden death was the result of taking a dose of carbolic acid by mistake. Her fatal dose was discovered soon after taken and medical aid summoned to save the suffering woman, but nothing could be done except to relieve immediate pain. She was conscious of the fatal mistake, and exclaimed she had mistakenly taken her death potion.

THEY MEAN BUSINESS

Trainmen of the Chicago and Erie Will Make a Fight for Uniform Wages.

The following is a special from Huntington, Ind., to the Enquirer, dated Oct. 6th: Ever since the Erie took control of the Chicago and Erie road the employes in the train service have had in view an effort to secure the adoption of a uniform scale of wages by the new company. They want the pay to be uniform for train service all the way between New York and Chicago. In order to bring the matter properly before the officers of the road the Brotherhoods of conductors, brakemen, engineers and firemen arranged for a gathering of one man from each lodge located on the Erie lines between New York and Chicago. This party consisting of about seventy-five men, forms a committee which presented their claims to President King in New York City today.

The representatives from here are Joe Hubbard, from the Conductors, A. P. Penfield, from the Engineers, Cass Keiler, from the Firemen; and and one from the Brakemen's Lodge, whose name could not be ascertained. They are all in New York City on that business. A telegram received states President King is inclined to be stubborn in the matter, but the men say it is to be a fight to a finish. He must either adopt a uniform scale of wages or suffer a strike that will eclipse the New York Central strike, inasmuch as it includes all the train men.

SHOOTING AT GREEN CAMP.

A Small Sensation Created by an Attempt to Shoot a Drummer.

Up from Green Camp this morning came information regarding an attempt to shoot a traveling man at that place Monday at midnight, and a small sensation was consequently created.

A Mr Lautenschlager, representative of the dry goods firm of Leglar, Barlow, & Co., of Dayton, O., arrived at Green Camp on the midnight train from the East. After the train had pulled out he remained in the vicinity of the depot, looking for his baggage, which he supposed had been put off there. He walked out toward the water tank, when two men approached him, and when quite close fired at him with a revolver. The traveling man lost no time in getting out of the way, running across the street to a residence, where he awoke the occupants and inquired the way to the hotel. When half way between the residence of Mr. Poland and the corner store he was fired on again. He then returned to Mr. Poland's residence and called him up, but nothing more was seen of the parties who did the firing.

That they meant business is evident from the fact that Mr. L.'s overcoat was pierced by a bullet. What the motive of the attack was is beyond conjecture. Three young men, Robert Boxwell, John Ritzler, Jr., and Elmer Black arrived at Green Camp on the same train with the drummer, but saw no one around the depot. Mr. Poland and other citizens heard the shooting.

More About Musical Instruments.

In reference to the article in yesterday's STAR by one W. M. Craig, I have to say when a man gets beaten on his own game he squeals that much harder. What I said in my article last Saturday I stand ready to prove—every word of it—to any person interested. There is nothing in my article like his big hobby, "that other fellow."

In regard to prices, that is an old chestnut of his, and I am willing to pay him $100 for every person that can be found to whom I bought and sold pianos for the prices mentioned. People who buy their own goods with their own money know better and do not make such wild statements.

As for the committee on music last year, I have stated before, was all satisfactory, and the judgment and decision of the committee on pianos has been again confirmed by the excellent judges this year. The man he sells for may be the superintendent of a large Sunday school, and it is all well and good. It might be well for his agent to be one of his scholars, so he may be elevated to a like position in his old age, and be as good as he claims for him.

It is easy enough for some men in this country to try to run others down during the week and pose as truly good on Sundays. I advise all to first try their best to get the big log out of their own eyes before they try looking for the splinter in their brother's eye.

Testimonials are easily secured. He talks so much about the noted prima donna, Adelina Patti, using his fine mendation, dated Dec. 16, 1889, as folpiano. This same lady gave a recomlows:

> Gentlemen. It gives me great pleasure to testify to the merits of your piano. It has a wonderfully sweet and sympathetic tone and supports the voice in a most satisfactory manner.
> Sincerely yours,
> ADELINA PATTI.

I sell this piano, to which she refers, for $275 on good monthly payments, a discount for cash, and a good piano for the money. As far as buying and selling pianos is concerned, I think I buy as cheap as any dealer and try to sell them at a very reasonable margin. I don't say that my pianos are the only good ones made, but I do say I handle as good a line as can be found in Central Ohio, and sell no goods but what are fully warranted to me by responsible factories, and can safely warrant to my customers.

As it don't pay me to fool any more time away on this and I need the money to pay my bills instead of spending it this way, we will close by saying to the readers, never fail to give me a call when in need of goods in my line. I must say I was well patronized in Marion, Delaware, Morrow, Union and Hardin counties, and thank the good people for their kindness. I tried my best to do all I could in what was right and reasonable and I have the assurance it was well appreciated, for where I have had dealings in most cases they have been renewed when in need of goods. A further continuation is hoped for.

Respectfully,
1t H. ACKERMAN.

COMING ENTERTAINMENTS

Irving and Longfellow Lecture Course—Some Press Opinions.

The first entertainment of this course will begin by Thearle's Original Nashville Students, the most distinguished colored artists in the world. They are the best jubilee singers, and have the best lady vocalist, and the best character vocalist. They have been on courses in Boston, New York, Philadelphia and Chicago. They have been most enthusiastically received all over the country in the twelve years they have been before the public.

The Chicago Tribune says

The Original Nashville Students, who are just closing a season of one month in this city, have been remarkably successful, both in giving a pleasing entertainment and in drawing crowded houses, and in the first place they do give the most original and unique concert ever given by a jubilee party.

The Columbus Journal says:

The extra entertainment of the lecture course last night was the Nashville Colored Students, a portion of the famous singers who have made fortunes for more than one manager. The Board of Trade auditorium had but few vacant seats during the entertainment. The audience was large and representative of the best people of the city. The program was divided into three parts, and all through it there was good singing and interspersed with humor and plantation trail that entertained the listeners from first to last.

The Columbus State Journal also has this to say of Dr. Hedley:

Dr. Hedley is an orator of a type of his own making, and probably no one ever saw or heard any one else like him. He is a humorist and comedian, as well as poet and orator, and the audience laughed and laughed until it seemed they could laugh no more, but at some new sally, or well turned point or droll story, they would break down and interrupt the speaker with their uncontrollable applause. The Doctor has gestures that are grace itself, and a voice musical in the extreme, while some of his eloquent flights are almost matchless. "The Sunny Side of Life" will long be remembered.

The National Republican, Washington, D. C., has the following notice of the Schubert Quartet:

The quartet is a model organization, and the rendition of each allotted number was succeeded by loud and prolonged recalls. Their vocalization was exquisite, and both shading and phrasing were of the most perfect order. The Schubert Quartet can fill the biggest house in Washington solely by their merit as vocalists.

The Dayton, O., Journal speaks as follows of the entertainment given by Leland Powers in that city:

His wonderful power of impersonating character held the large audience attentive to the end. Certainly no one can see one man picture the foibles of human nature as manifested in so many different characters without being filled with admiration for his genius.

The Chicago Tribune says:

One of the most successful entertainments ever given by the Y. M. C. A. Course here was that of last evening, when Mr. Leland T. Powers, of Boston, gave his wonderfully fine rendition of the play of David Garrick. Mr. Powers was immediately re-engaged for next season.

The Boston Journal has the following to say of the Lotus Glee Club, in the Boston Star Course last year.

The Lotus Glee Club, fresh from successes in London, are all artists. Their voices blend perfectly, and it is a positive pleasure to listen to the selections rendered by them. From the vocal waltz, which opened the program, to the beautiful serenade by Abt, which was the closing number, the audience listened spell-bound. No such artistic singing has been heard for a long time from any male quartet in this city.

Equally strong notices can be given of the sixth entertainment, a lecture by Dr. Gunsaulus, Rev. Brobst, Colonel Connell or Joseph Cook.

The sale of tickets will begin next Saturday. Certainly a rich treat is in store for the people in this lecture course.

RAILROAD NOTES.

The [illegible] railroad branch to Matamoros and Izucar, state of Puebla, Mex., is finished.

[illegible] railroad is eighty-one miles long and cost [illegible] a mile. It uses American locomotives.

The railroad companies of the United States have subscribed to date $825,000 to the stock of the World's Fair.

A statistician estimates that the number of passengers carried each day on all the railroads in the world averages 6,500,000.

The Naugatuck railroad, in Connecticut, has never since its first train ran killed any person who held a ticket and was one of its regular passengers.

As early as 1853 a Bristol and Exeter broad gauge locomotive, carrying a light load and running on a falling grade, developed a speed of eighty miles an hour.

The gross receipts of the Trans-Caucasian railroad for 1890 up to the month of June amounted to [illegible] rubles, over a half million more than the entire receipts of the last year.

Artesian wells have developed such an abundant supply of water in the desert of Sahara that the Frenchmen are confident of being able to extend their railroad to a distance of a week's journey from Algeria right through the desert.

It is on record that the Vanderbilts once gave a check for £500,000 in a tremendous railway transaction, but that record is now beaten by the check for £1,250,000 said to be drawn in London by the Indian and Peninsular railway company.

The Mount Washington railway has used wood in its locomotives since the road was opened, upward of twenty years. Good wood costs, prepared for the locomotive, about $8 a cord, notwithstanding it is cut within three miles of where it is used, and each trip up the mountain requires nearly a cord.
